How To Memorize The Guitar Fretboard: Learn All The Notes Fast And Easy And Have Fun Doing It

Synopsis

Memorize all the notes on the guitar easily and feel confident when playing the guitar! With "How to Memorize the Guitar Fretboard: Learn All the Notes Fast and Easy and Have Fun Doing It" you will do exactly that. Why memorize the notes on the fretboard? So you know your way around the neck, just like a piano player would need to learn what all the white keys and black keys on a piano are and how they work together to make musical sense. This book covers eight ways to memorize the notes on the fretboard. These ways have been carefully thought out and the author invested a tremendous amount of time selecting the very best methods in order to teach the anxious guitar student how to quickly know his or her way around the neck to become a much more confident and masterful player. This book is the most comprehensive and detailed book on the subject to the author's knowledge. There isn't any book out there like it. For this reason, you should be able to learn something new to add more understanding and enlightenment to your guitar playing experience. Do yourself a favor and click on the link above to buy this book now to make your life easier as a guitar player!

Customer Reviews

Great book! This is an excellent book for learning guitar lessons which covers all the information from basic level to professional level in details. You can learn how to find every note on the fretboard by reading this book. The methods are extremely helpful: the location of the notes on each string and the relationships and the octave locations across the fretboard. The book will quickly guide you accessible read of every fret and note on the fretboard. Reading this book makes you entirely visualize the fretboard, make you become a guitar master. Very helpful!

A great way to learn guitar notes. Roger is a really good teacher and has written this book very well. I recommend it for anyone interested in learning to play the guitar.
